POSITION TITLE

College Credit Marketing Intern

POSITION DESCRIPTION

This college credit position provides students with an opportunity to learn about and support the marketing and public relations needs of a preeminent nonprofit performing arts organization in a fun, dynamic and energetic work environment. Interns assist in the creation of print and digital collateral, respond to promotional requests, interact with the organization's public relations team, and help to execute the annual marketing plan. To meet the student's educational needs, they receive mentorship and feedback from the entire office team, as well as the organization's public relations firm, Carol Fox and Associates, and are directly supervised in specific projects, determined by current organizational needs, that span their time with the company. Responsibilities and skills built may include graphic design, written promotions and communications, digital marketing, research, archiving, strategic thinking, and networking, with an emphasis on expanding the organization's social media presence. The college credit Marketing Internship is unpaid.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS - EDUCATION

The ideal candidate is a college student majoring in Marketing, Communications, Graphic Design, Public Relations or any related field. The unique skills of each intern are incorporated into the expectations and tasks for their time with the Company. Internship credit must be received from applicant's college or university to apply for this position.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS - EXPERIENCE

The ideal candidate should be detail oriented, flexible and able to represent Giordano Dance Chicago professionally and enthusiastically both inside and outside of the office. Multitasking and the ability to work on multiple projects simultaneously is essential. Previous graphic design, marketing experience, and a penchant for social media is preferred. Basic photography skills are a plus. Students will receive individualized guidance to build upon these same skills and new ones.

KEY COMPETENCIES and CHARACTERISTICS

Strong technology skills (Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office, Salesforce); general knowledge of design basics; solid communication, writing and digital marketing skills; attention to detail; creative thinker with a sense of adventure and humor; flexible, adaptable, and willing to learn.
